

Resources for providers & advocates with patients with substance use

Agency	Contact Information	Description of Services
National Clinician Consultation Center Substance Use Warmline	(855) 300-3595	Monday – Friday 6 am-5pm PST; Voicemail 24/7  Specialty addiction medicine consultation, regardless of substance, issue, or clinical setting
California Substance Use Line	(844) 326-2626	California providers only, service of poison control 24/7 days a week Rapid access to advice for acute care buprenorphine starts, other issues routed to the national line
Alameda Health System Bridge Clinic at Highland Hospital	Call or text SUN Warmline (510) 545-2765  Email SUN@alamedahhealthsystem.org	Monday-Friday 9am-5pm; The Bridge Clinic can provide on-demand, low-threshold substance use and harm reduction support via telemedicine or in-person visits with an Addiction Medicine specialist, including post-hospital longitudinal follow-up care for buprenorphine and other MAT for patients ages 12 and up.

Anti-Human Trafficking Program, Commercial Sexual Exploitation C

Anti-Human Trafficking Program	safetynet@ucsf.edu (510) 428-3387	If suspected CSEC patient please immediately contact AHTP for services, Support to patients at bedside is available
Bay Area Legal Aid	510-250-5277  Legal Advice Line: 800-551-5554	The Youth Justice Team believes that young people should be treated with respect and have the resources they need to meet their goals. Service Area: Entry into Foster Care and Foster Care Benefits Education (special education, enrollment, partial credit recovery, school discipline defense) Guardianships Public Benefits and SSI Immigration Family Law